POLICY REGARDING SPONSORED ADULT LEARNERS

IMPORTANT NOTE TO SPONSORED SCHOOLS AND SPONSORED LEARNERS

In the event that an adult learner leaves the employment of a sponsoring entity such as a school, it is CGMS policy to allow that adult learner to complete their training provided that they assume financial responsibility for future payments if any. If tuition has been paid in full, then at the time an Adult Learner leaves a sponsor's employment the sponsor or sponsors shall receive a refund according to the Withdrawals and Refund Policy, and the Adult Learner must assume payments for any amount refunded to the sponsor or sponsors.

If a sponsor demonstrates that they have a written contract mandating repayment for an adult learner's training, then CGMS will prohibit the adult learner from finishing their training until such a time as they have fulfilled that contract. Sponsors who wish to ensure that a teacher who has left their employ can no longer continue training at CGMS without financial repayment must provide CGMS with a copy of a signed and countersigned contract stating the terms of the sponsorship.

- ☐ No, I am a self paying adult learner and a school contract does not apply to me.
- ☐ No, I/we do not have a written repayment contract with the adult learner in question.
- ☐ Yes, I/we have a written repayment contract with the adult learner in question. I will submit a copy of that contract with this document.
